Where the childcare provider chooses to offer the ability for parents to stretch/bank hours to be used over other periods such as school holidays etc. these days/hours need to be agreed between parent and childcare provider and the following applies:-

- There is no transfer of any stretched/banked EEF entitlement should the child move to a new childcare provider.
- There will be no charge to the parent if the childcare provider offers this flexibility option.
- The maximum EEF entitlement within any week, including the stretched/banked hours cannot exceed 15 universal hours per week and 15 extended hours per week.

9. Additional Hours and Services

The childcare provider can charge for meals and snacks as part of an EEF entitlement place and they can also charge for consumables such as nappies or sun cream and for services such as trips and yoga. These charges must be voluntary for the parent. Where parents are unable or unwilling to pay for meals and consumables, childcare providers who choose to offer the EEF entitlements are responsible for setting their own policy on how to respond, with options waiving or reducing the cost of meals and snacks or allowing parents to supply their own meals.

The childcare provider should ensure their invoices and receipts are clear, transparent and itemised, allowing parents to see that they have received their EEF entitlement completely free of charge and understand fees paid for additional hours. The provider will also ensure that receipts contain their full details so that they can be identified as coming from them.

The childcare provider cannot ask the parent to pay any fee associated with their child's EEF place other than a refundable deposit, required to initially secure the place.

10. Grace Period of Entitlement for the Extended 15 hours

For children whose parent ceases to meet the eligibility criteria for the extended 15 hours, the child's placement will continue to be funded for the extended 15 hours until the grace period end date as detailed below:-

I understand that the extended 15 hours will not be funded beyond the grace period end date if I become ineligible or fail to reconfirm my details with Childcare Choices by the termly deadlines. If I fall back into eligibility during the grace period, I also understand that my child's extended 15 hours beyond the grace period are subject to availability.
